Danny Tape

Born on the 25th of September 1985, Daniel Teixeira has soon fallen in love with electronic music.

When he was only 14, he started organizing parties at school and later he cooperated in the creation of a school radio station. He has always been engaged in electronic music and he has participated in several DJ/Production workshops. He is currently working in some projects in the field of musical production, having already been edited by Cult Note Records in Italy.

His main musical references are House Music and all its variants, Deep House, Nu-Disco, Disco and Tech House. Currently working with Labels : Be Adult Music, Cult Note Records, DeepSoulful Recordings, Groove is Our Business, Grooveland Music, Mole Music, SP Recordings & Hush Recordz.

Danny has already had the privilege of working with several DJ's , such as: Alex Wizz, Nuno Di Rosso, Emanuel, Nuno Caco, Miguel Barros, Rui Mimoso, Ricci Ferdinand, Mario Kitty, and Vitor L. to name a few.

IGOR CARMO

Ministry of Sound - It takes a certain set of skills to become a Ministry of Sound resident DJ and in each of these departments Igor Carmo catches the eye. A charismatic and highly skilled DJ, Igor has been recognized globally for his technical abilities and selection prowess, winning, most notably, the 2011 Mixmag & Ministry of Sound DJ competition. Originally from Lisbon but now based in the UK, Igor is no stranger to the rigors of life as a well known and highly sought after DJ.

In 2005 he headed to England and has remained in United Kingdom ever since. In 2008 he has been recognized for his technical abilities and selection prowess, winning Galaxy Radio West Midlands Street Life Championship & and becoming the finalist of 2010 West Midlands Corona Movidia Competition.

Following this success, in 2011 he signed a contract with Ministry of Sound London, after winning the MOS and Mixmag Dj Competition. He played alongside many of the big names including Funk D'Void, Ian Pullen, Roger Sanchez, Bob Sinclair and many more, representing the brand all over the world for four years.

While working for Ministry of Sound, he displayed awesome technical skills, played outstanding sets that encompassed a variety of Electronic Music. He was very adaptable and read the crowd perfectly.

National recognition ~ DJ of the week by DJ Club Portugal. Week #47 2020

Igor's productions have been signed to @MinistryofSound, @Nervous-Records
