DJ Frithjof

Born in Bremen, Germany in 1978.

As a young guy, he was already interested in electronic music. Influenced by productions by Marco Carola, Adam Beyer, Richie Hawtin as well as other underground Techno icons, he intensified his efforts to become an ambitious DJ by spinning and mixing records. Starting to play in some small German underground clubs in 1999, he has extended his playing areas too many European countries like Spain, Germany, Romania, Netherlands and France.

Bored by the limited means of musical expression and mixing possibilities, he refined his DJ talents in 2000 and began mixing on three decks. Frithjof then felt the need to get a deeper insight into electronic music Production, studying at a well-established music school (SAE in Hamburg), and making his degree as an Electronic Music Producer. This contributed to his inspiration when trying out his own homemade tracks at the venues on the floor as a DJ.

One of his greatest steps towards becoming internationally known was being Invited to some DJ gigs in Brazil in 2004 and repeatedly in 2005 and 2006. He also took part on Party Cruises, Festivals and in a DJ live show at a local radio station with his very own set in Sao Paulo, accompanying the party spirit during Carnival time.

In 2004, he established himself as a resident DJ at Reco des Pins club in Ibiza. Some gigs at well-known clubs, such as the Space, Eden (resident 2011), Privelege, Es Paradis confirmed his ever-growing talents as someone who can 'rock' the floor with truly passionate Deep, pumping and kicking Techno DJ sets.

Additionally, Frithjof isn't restricted to a narrow range of music styles, but also likes to have fresh, funky and melodic elements integrated in his pumping sets. Since 2008 he was a resident DJ in a small Underground club called BLU in Ibiza. He played together with international djs like Karotte, Mark Reeve, Gregor Tresher, Pig & Dan, Carl Cox, Luciano, Cari Lekebusch, Joel Mull, Dosem, Thomas Schumacher, Marco Faraone, Luca Agnelli, M.in, Mauro Picotto, Dorian Paic, Markus Fix, Robert Dietz, Cassy, Vera, Frank Lorber, Ata, Arado, System of Survival and many more

In 2010, Frithjof was playing every Tuesday on the Ibiza Sunset Yachting parties which is a Katamaran Sunset Cruise with International surprise guests. In September 2013, he decided to go back to Germany where he started in 2013, a monthly residency at a Club called Lightplanke in Bremen until it was shut down. In 2018, he started a party called „Sequence“ in several clubs.
